

Bodega Pablo Fallabrino Notos 2021

This Nebbiolo is from the estate vineyard in the Atlántida region of Canelones . The nose shows bright, ripe raspberry and orange peel with underlying notes of dried herbs, flowers, and a hint of Nag Champa incense. The palate shows mandarin orange with lavender and cracked peppercorn. Light and energetic with medium acidity and high tannin.

Bodega Pablo Fallabrino is located 4 km's from the Atlantic Ocean in Atlantida Uruguay, a sub region of Canelones, one of the coolest growing regions in Uruguay. Pablo Fallabrino is the owner, grower and winemaker of Bodega Pablo Fallabrino and he lives on the estate. His grandfather, Angelo Fallabrino immigrated to Uruguay in 1920 from Piedmont and planted 5 vineyards and started 2 wineries in the 1930's. Pablo studied with both his father and grandfather and eventually started the current, single vineyard estate in 1997 where they currently have 12 hectares under vine on their 30 hectare estate. Bodega Pablo Fallabrino produces mostly Piedmontese varietals in addition to Tannat and their wines typically show an old world, nuanced style which we tend to gravitate towards. Pablo is also an avid surfer.
